

What to wear to my Combination/Technique

Class:

Going to dance class is a very special event each week. It is something that every dancer looks forward to doing. Getting ready for dance class is just as important as participating in the dance class. It is part of the “discipline” of being a dancer. At New Creations Dance Studio we take pride in the way our dancers look and participate while in class. Listed below are the requirements for your class:

Dance Attire:

Traditional Dance Wear: Tights and Leotards. (The tights are worn under the leotard)

Tights: Footed. Footless. Convertible. Any color

Leotard: Camisole, tank, short sleeve, long sleeve. Any color

Other options:

Unitards: Tank top, long or short sleeve. Legs: bike pant length, capri length or ankle length. Any color

Two piece lycra outfits: Crop top with tank, short or long sleeve. With bike pants length or capri length bottoms.

Lycra tank top and leggings

Things not to wear:

No Panties under leotard and tights. The tights serve as underwear. (unless you are in the 2-3yr old Creative Movement class)

No T-shirts or shorts over the dance outfit. The teacher must be able to see the entire body.

No jewelry in class: watches, bracelets, necklaces. Small earrings are fine.

Dance Shoes:

Traditional Dance Wear: Ballet Shoes and Tap Shoes

Ballet Shoes: Pink Leather Slippers with elastic over arch. Ballet shoes come in Full Sole or Split sole.

Either style is OK. The draw string on the top of the ballet shoe should gently be pulled tight and the knotted to stay at that tightness. Cut the strings with scissors at the knot. There should not be a bow on top of the Ballet Shoe.

Tap Shoes: Black patent leather shoes.

2-3yr old Creative Movement classes will not need tap shoes.

Jazz Shoes: (only for Junior and Teen Technique) Tan leather jazz shoes.

Things not to wear:

No bedroom slippers for Ballet shoes. This includes the satin top house slippers

No buckles on the Tap Shoes.

Dance Hair Style:

Traditional Dance Hair Style: Bun, French Twist, French Braid.

Long Hair: Pony Tail, Dog ears, Bun, French Twist, French Braid tucked up off the neck. Two buns on top of head. Short bangs may be worn down. Use barrettes to keep short hair up.

Short Hair: Half Up, Half Down. The front part should be pulled up and the back is left down.
